

INAUGURAL CONFERENCE OF CHINA FINANCIAL MARKET (CFM2016)

Graduate School of Malaya Business, University of Malaya
15 & 16 December, 2016

This is a two days conference jointly organised between Sun Tzu Institute and Faculty of Business and Accountancy, University of Malaya with the aims to gather the most prominent researchers in the world who work in the area of China Financial markets. The financial market in China is emerging as one of the spot of interest for institutional and individual investors for future investment due to their low cost of funding and established infrastructure. This offers expansion of business activities for firms in the ASEAN region. Hence, this conference will definitely create an avenue to bring the academics and participants from the industries for better understanding on the opportunities and threat of the financial markets in China. Besides, strong understanding on the policy matters and investors behaviour in China further enhance the business decision making in their expansion process. Therefore, the ultimate goal of this conference is to encourage the sharing between policy makers, industries and academics on the views of the emerging Chinese Financial Markets.
